Summary

Foreword – Dedication

This fairy tale is dedicated to my granddaughter Evelina, with the wish that, when she grows up, she may find her prince.

Our Story

Once upon a time, there was a sweet little girl named Evelina.

Evelina lived with her parents and her brother in a beautiful house on the edge of town. Her window looked out onto the street, and whenever she had time, she loved to watch what was happening outside.

Evelina loved horses very much, and every night she dreamed that she had a horse of her own.

One evening, while she was sleeping, she heard a strange sound outside her window.

She got up, went closer to the window, and what did she see? A beautiful white horse was standing outside her window, and its eyes were shining like diamonds.*

The horse spoke to her in a sweet and gentle voice: “Evelina, I have come to take you on a beautiful magical adventure.”
