Dedication

Dedicated with all my love to my beloved granddaughter Evelina, whose smile fills the world with colors, imagination, and joy.
May this story always remind her that kindness, friendship, and imagination can make the world brighter.
With love,
Her grandfather

Word Explanations

Foreword

This story is part of a series of children's stories under the main title "Fairy Tales," which aims to introduce children to the world of fairy tales while combining knowledge with humor and the funny side of life, making the story interesting and enjoyable.

In all the stories, the main hero is Charalampos, and his friends Lefteris and Panagiotis also take part.

Each story includes a glossary of unfamiliar words so that young children can understand the more difficult words.
